A lifelong resident of Brevard County and a graduate of the University of Florida, where she earned a Degree in Business and Marketing, Alyssa brings both academic training and generational local insight to her real estate practice. Today, with Compass Florida, LLC, Alyssa continues to specialize in oceanfront and riverfront properties, second homes, vacation residences, and high-end new construction developments. Her designation as a Certified Luxury Home Marketing Specialist reflects her commitment to excellence in the luxury market, where precision, discretion, and market insight are essential. Her performance has earned her recognition as the number-two-ranked agent in Brevard County for 2025, underscoring her continued leadership in the region's competitive real estate landscape.

Alyssa is widely known for her ability to guide clients through every stage of the real estate process, from first-time purchases to complex investment acquisitions and high-value luxury transactions. Her deep understanding of waterfront and development properties makes her a trusted advisor for clients seeking both lifestyle and long-term investment opportunities along Florida's coast.

Beyond her professional achievements, Alyssa is passionate about creating a positive and enjoyable experience for her clients. She takes pride in helping individuals and families achieve their real estate goals while fostering lasting relationships that extend well beyond closing. Many of her clients continue to rely on her as a long-term resource for market guidance and investment insight.

"What sets me apart is my commitment to concierge-level service, clear communication, discretion, and thoughtful negotiation," Alyssa said. "I treat each client relationship as a lifelong partnership, ensuring every detail is managed with care and confidence."

Outside of real estate, Alyssa is an active member of her community and enjoys playing tennis at the Eau Gallie Yacht Club. She also serves as Team Mom for the Holy Trinity Girls Varsity Tennis Team. Satellite Beach remains her hometown and a central part of her identity and inspiration.
