

Andrew Tate Expands Supercar Fleet in Romania with Bespoke $3 Million Aston Martin Valhalla

Controversial entrepreneur and influencer Andrew Tate has added another standout hyper car to his extensive collection based in Romania, taking delivery of a striking Aston Martin Valhalla.

Bucharest, Bucuresti Jun 25, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - The hybrid hyper car, finished in a custom colour shifting paint was recently spotted at a local gas station, underscoring Tate's ongoing commitment to building one of the world's most expensive private collection of cars in Europe.

The Valhalla, one of just 999 cars, is powered by a 4.0 litre twin-turbo V8 hybrid system delivering over 1,000 horsepower. Tate is reported to own at least two examples.

This latest addition highlights Tate's focus on expanding his presence in Romania, where he maintains a significant portion of his fleet despite past legal challenges involving asset seizures.

Tate's car collection is legendary in scale and rarity, reportedly encompassing over 80 hyper cars and supercars spread across Romania, Dubai, and various European warehouses. He also owns the following

- Bugatti Chiron Pur Sport ("Bad Man Copper" custom finish) — One of his most iconic and publicised vehicles.
- Multiple Koenigsegg Jeskos
- Pagani Huayra BC and Pagani Utopia.
- Rimac Nevera.
- Ferrari 812 Competizione.
- Other Astons such as the DBS 770 Ultimate, V12 Vantage, V12 Vanquish, and a classic DB5.
- McLarens (including multiple 765LTs and W1s), Lamborghinis, Rolls-Royces, and more.

Commenting on his passion for high performance cars, Tate has said in a post, in true Andrew Tate fashion: "It amazes me how people live their lives without having the car they want. Because I have to have all the cars I don't want. I have to have everything."

The Valhalla delivery comes as Aston Martin strengthens its presence in Romania with a new dealership in Bucharest.
