Tomah, Wisconsin Jun 16, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Prolific Christian author Eva Peck has released her latest work, Gospel of God's Grace and His Kingdom: Insights and Reflections, a spiritually rich and practically grounded study that invites readers to discover grace, the Kingdom of God, and God's will not as separate theological concepts, but as one unified truth.

Inspired by the Apostle Paul's farewell address to the Ephesian elders in Acts 20:24–27, Peck builds her exploration around Paul's striking equation of "the gospel of God's grace" with "preaching the kingdom" and his declaration of proclaiming "the whole will of God." Through careful reflection on this passage, she illuminates how these three expressions point to a single, indivisible gospel reality.

About the Book

Grace is a concept many sincere Christians wrestle with to fully comprehend. In this book, Peck addresses the danger of diluted or misunderstood grace and offers readers a path toward deeper clarity. She writes with conviction and pastoral warmth, guiding her audience through spiritual rebirth, intimacy with God, and the transforming work of the Holy Spirit imparting Divine Love into the heart.

Rooted firmly in Scripture yet accessible in tone, the book is designed to provide clarity without dogmatism and depth without theological overload. It culminates in an invitation to embrace the promise of life in God's Celestial Kingdom, an eternal reality that Peck presents as both the goal of grace and the fullness of His Kingdom.

"I would like to encourage readers to consider embarking on the spiritual path that the book describes— to ask God for His Divine Love imparted by the Holy Spirit and then follow its lead. It will gradually transform their lives, making them more loving, kind, and peaceful. It will make their life here and now easier, and the next life immortal and blissful." — Eva Peck
