

Brienna Watson, APSW Expands Trauma-Informed Mental Health Services Across Northeast Wisconsin

Green Bay, Wisconsin Jun 29, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Green Bay, Wisconsin — America's Best in Medicine proudly recognizes Brienna Watson, APSW, for her outstanding contributions to the fields of social work, behavioral health, and mental health advocacy. Through her dedication to evidence-based care, client-centered treatment, and professional excellence, Watson has established herself as a compassionate and effective practitioner serving individuals, families, and communities throughout Wisconsin.

Watson earned both her Bachelor of Social Work and Master of Social Work degrees from the University of Wisconsin–Green Bay, graduating with academic distinction and maintaining Honors Student status throughout her collegiate career. Her educational background includes a double major in Social Work and Arts, along with a minor in Psychology, providing a well-rounded foundation for her clinical practice.

Over the course of her career, Watson has demonstrated a commitment to helping clients navigate behavioral, emotional, and mental health challenges. Her professional experience spans a variety of settings, including youth mentoring programs, autism services, therapeutic programming, and behavioral health treatment. Throughout these roles, she has consistently focused on fostering resilience, developing individualized treatment strategies, and creating supportive environments that promote personal growth and well-being.

Watson's experience includes work with children and adolescents at West De Pere Middle School, where she assisted students through mentoring, crisis de-escalation, and mental health education initiatives. She further expanded her clinical expertise at Fox Valley Autism Center, utilizing play-based and evidence-based interventions to support clients and their families.

At The Production Farm in Manitowoc, Wisconsin, Watson served in both internship and professional capacities, helping clients achieve therapeutic goals through structured interventions, group programming, and skills development. Her work emphasized emotional regulation, healthy coping strategies, and positive behavioral outcomes for children and adolescents.

Currently, Watson serves as an Advanced Practice Social Worker with Phoenix Behavioral Health Services in Green Bay. In her role, she conducts individual, family, and couples therapy sessions, develops treatment plans, and maintains comprehensive progress documentation. She remains dedicated to continuing education and professional development, ensuring that her clients benefit from the latest advancements in behavioral health care.

America's Best in Medicine recognizes Brienna Watson for her unwavering commitment to improving the lives of others through compassionate service, clinical excellence, and advocacy for mental health awareness. Her dedication to empowering clients and supporting positive change reflects the highest standards of the social work profession.
