Manila, Luzon Jun 11, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Father's Day is a chance to raise a glass to the men who have cheered us on, guided us forward, and stood by us through life's biggest moments and everyday victories. It is a day to gather and cherish the fathers and father figures who continue to inspire and uplift those around them. This June 21, Solaire Resort Entertainment City, the country's premier luxury integrated resort destination, invites families to honor Dad through a collection of premium dining, leisure, and lifestyle experiences thoughtfully curated for the occasion. From intimate gatherings and lavish family feasts to thrilling world-class entertainment and rejuvenating weekend escapes, every experience is designed to make the man of the hour feel truly celebrated.

For dads who appreciate craftsmanship and life's finer pleasures, Yakumi presents an elevated Father's Day Brunch showcasing the artistry of Japanese dining. Combining Filipino comfort with understated sophistication, it is the perfect setting to unwind, share stories, and toast the man who has always been there through life's milestones.

For families who believe every celebration is best enjoyed around a table filled with abundance, Red Lantern transforms Father's Day into a grand feast inspired by the richness of Chinese culinary heritage. Its renowned Eat-All-You-Can experience is elevated with 20 exclusive dishes crafted for the occasion, including delicate Crystal skin lobster dumplings and savory Hong Kong-style barbecued pork ribs. Designed for sharing and discovery, the experience brings generations together over bold flavors and a wide variety of treasured traditions.

Meanwhile, Fresh turns Father's Day into a global culinary adventure with an expansive international buffet featuring unlimited premium seafood towers, carving stations, global and local favorites, and free-flowing beverages. Lively and welcoming, the experience paints the perfect backdrop to create new memories of gastronomic discovery, shared laughter, and heartfelt conversations in celebrating the man at the center of it all.
