

Dave Futch Earns 2026 RealTrends Verified Recognition in Maui

Bringing over 30 years of real estate expertise and trusted local insight, with deep experience across Maui, Haiku, and Upcountry

Lahaina, Hawaii Jun 11, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Dave Futch, a Maui REALTOR® with Compass, has been a prominent figure in the Maui real estate market. Dave Futch has lived on Maui since 1988 and has worked in real estate since 1993. A licensed professional in the state of Hawaii, Futch specializes in the North Shore and Upcountry regions while also offering extensive knowledge across South, Central, East, and West Maui.

His long-term experience on Maui provides clients with insight that extends beyond market statistics. Futch is particularly knowledgeable about the distinctions between communities such as Haiku, Paia, Makawao, and Kula, helping buyers understand how factors such as elevation, rainfall, wind exposure, and access can affect both lifestyle and property ownership. His familiarity with Maui's microclimates enables clients to evaluate properties with a clearer understanding of maintenance requirements, growing conditions, viewsheds, and long-term value.

Further distinguishing his professional achievements, Futch is recognized by RealTrends as a Verified Top Agent by Volume based on 2025 sales data. According to RealTrends, he recorded $10.94 million in verified sales volume across 10 transaction sides, earning the No. 291 ranking in Hawaii by sales volume. This independent recognition reflects his consistent performance in a competitive real estate market.

With a career spanning more than thirty years, Futch has developed expertise in buying, selling, building, and remodeling homes throughout Maui. His experience allows him to help clients assess property condition, renovation potential, and architectural characteristics, whether they are considering a plantation-style home in Paia, a rural property in Haiku, or an Upcountry residence in Kula or Makawao. He also understands the unique considerations associated with acreage properties, including topography, access, utilities, water systems, and land use factors that can significantly influence ownership and development plans.

Leading a dedicated team, Futch works with both local and international clients, providing guidance throughout the transaction process. His approach emphasizes clear communication and practical advice, helping clients navigate the complexities of Maui real estate with confidence.

Futch has built a reputation as a trusted resource for buyers and sellers seeking informed guidance in Maui's diverse property market. By combining decades of local experience with a detailed understanding of Maui's neighborhoods, property types, and development considerations, he helps clients make decisions based on the specific characteristics of each property and community.
