Deanna Recchia: Bridging Healthcare and Real Estate with Compassion and Expertise

Leominster, Massachusetts Jun 8, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Deanna Recchia is a Licensed REALTOR® with Coldwell Banker Realty, proudly serving buyers and sellers across north central Massachusetts and southern New Hampshire. With an impressive background as a NICU and Cardiac

ICU nurse spanning two decades, Deanna brings a unique blend of clinical composure, precision, and fierce advocacy to every real estate transaction.

A graduate of Salem State College with a Bachelor of Science in Business Marketing, Deanna's expertise extends beyond healthcare. Her previous role in operations management at FedEx has further refined her strategic positioning of properties and her ability to execute deals with confidence. In only four years in real estate, she has garnered recognition as a top-performing agent, demonstrating her exceptional skills as a negotiator, especially in competitive multi-offer scenarios and intricate deal structures.

Deanna's clientele includes a diverse spectrum of individuals, from first-time homebuyers and growing families to seasoned sellers and those seeking a tranquil retreat in the picturesque Lakes Region or White Mountains of New Hampshire. Her commitment to each client is underscored by her values of honesty, integrity, and clear communication, ensuring that every individual feels informed and empowered from the initial showing to the final signature.

"In just four years of practice, I have helped families find their place across the rural beauty of New England — from the shores of Winnepesaukee to the orchards of Harvard, from the foothills of Wachusett to the granite peaks of the Whites — earning top-producer recognition along the way," shares Deanna.

Her guiding philosophy is rooted in the belief that real estate transactions represent some of the most significant decisions in a person's life, deserving of careful consideration and respect. Deanna combines data-driven market intelligence with a deeply personal commitment to her clients' best interests, bringing the same dedication she once provided to her patients to every buyer and seller she represents today.

Deeply committed to the communities she serves, Deanna believes that helping a family find the right home is not merely a transaction; it is a meaningful contribution to the fabric of the community itself. From close-knit neighborhoods in north central Massachusetts to the serene towns of southern New Hampshire, she is passionate about making a positive impact.

In her personal life, Deanna is a proud mom to three adult children and a devoted dog mom to four energetic pups, thriving amidst the beautiful chaos that fills her life. She carries forward a legacy of resilience and dedication to giving back, instilled by her father, a proud Vietnam veteran who served with the 101st Airborne.

Deanna attributes her success to her unshakeable faith in God, a relentless spirit that refuses to back down from challenges, and the resilience she has cultivated through overcoming adversity. As a single mother, she is dedicated to modeling hard work and integrity, ensuring her children understand the value of dedication and perseverance.

Whether assisting a young couple in purchasing their first condo, helping a family find their forever farmhouse, or guiding clients in securing a lakefront retreat on Winnepesaukee, Deanna Recchia meets clients where they are, ready to navigate the journey of homeownership with expertise and care.
