

Global Real Estate Pro Unveils GLOBAL WORLD

A Fully Immersive 3D Metaverse for Real Estate

Mahwah, New Jersey Jun 14, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Global Real Estate Pro brokerage driven by Broker of Record Peter Ingrasselino announced the official launch of GLOBAL WORLD, a groundbreaking 3D metaverse environment designed to redefine how real estate professionals and clients connect, collaborate, and experience property worldwide. Built as a fully immersive virtual ecosystem, GLOBAL WORLD brings the company's global reach, luxury identity, and multi-division services into a single, borderless digital destination.

GLOBAL WORLD allows agents, brokers, and clients to meet, explore, and conduct business from anywhere on the planet, eliminating the need for physical offices while elevating the real estate experience through interactive 3D environments and avatar-based engagement.

A Borderless Real Estate Experience

Inside GLOBAL WORLD, users can seamlessly:

- Meet in private virtual offices representing every region the company serves
- Tour properties in immersive 3D, from Caribbean villas to New Jersey estates
- Attend live training, workshops, and global events inside a digital campus
- Collaborate across divisions including residential, luxury, commercial, and international
- Explore global markets with a single click, 24/7, from any device

This virtual ecosystem mirrors the company's multi-state and international footprint, which spans New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Florida, the Caribbean, and Europe.

Innovation That Brings People Together

GLOBAL WORLD was built to reflect Global Real Estate Pro's core identity: global reach, luxury service, innovation, and accessibility.

The platform blends cutting-edge technology with the human side of real estate, creating a space where relationships grow, opportunities expand, and clients experience properties in ways previously impossible.

"GLOBAL WORLD isn't just a virtual office — it's the future of global real estate," the company states on its official website.

A New Standard for Modern Real Estate

As the real estate industry increasingly embraces digital transformation, GLOBAL WORLD positions Global Real Estate Pro at the forefront of innovation. The platform delivers:

- 24/7 global accessibility
- Enhanced client engagement
- Immersive property visualization
- Faster, more connected transactions
- A unified environment for all divisions and markets

This launch aligns with broader industry trends showing rapid growth in virtual real estate environments and metaverse-driven property experiences
