Lucas McNatt: Championing Home Renewal for Low-to-Moderate Income Families in Los Alamos County

Santa Fe, New Mexico Jun 15, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Lucas McNatt, a dedicated Development Specialist at the Santa Fe Community Housing Trust, is making significant strides in improving housing conditions for low-to-moderate income homeowners through the Los Alamos County Home Renewal Program. With a rich background in residential construction and renovation, Lucas brings over three decades of knowledge gained from his father's contracting business, providing him with a unique perspective on the housing needs in the community.

Lucas's mission revolves around supporting qualified homeowners who require assistance in maintaining and enhancing their properties. The Home Renewal Program offers eligible clients access to funding of up to $45,000 for essential repairs and upgrades, addressing critical needs such as roofing, foundation work, stucco, drywall, water heaters, boilers, and modifications for ADA accessibility. As a third-party administrator, Lucas expertly navigates the entire process, from contractor procurement to lease agreements and mortgage documentation, ensuring a seamless experience for clients. His role at the Santa Fe Community Housing Trust not only aims to uplift individuals but also fosters a stronger community by enhancing overall housing stability.

Before his impactful work with the Housing Trust, Lucas gained valuable experience as a licensed real estate agent in Oklahoma, where he began his career in 2023. His diverse background, which includes a disciplined approach to teamwork and resilience honed on the football field as a former wide receiver at New Mexico Military Institute and Western New Mexico University, fuels his dedication to the housing sector. Lucas emphasizes the importance of leading by example, particularly for his young son, instilling in him the values of hard work and community service.

With his extensive hands-on construction knowledge and experience in both the private and nonprofit housing sectors, Lucas McNatt is well-equipped to tackle the challenges homeowners face in today's affordability market. His commitment to improving living conditions for families in Los Alamos County serves as an inspiration, and his work is paving the way for a brighter future for many in the community.
