Triple Board-Certified Physician Dr. Peahen Gandhi Leads a Patient-Centered Practice Serving Women at Every Life Stage

RenuGyn, a women's health and cosmetic gynecology practice based in Alpharetta, Georgia, is pleased to serve women across the greater Atlanta area with a full spectrum of clinical gynecology, cosmetic gynecology, and wellness services. Under the leadership of triple board-certified physician Dr. Peahen Gandhi, RenuGyn is committed to delivering evidence-informed, compassionate care that empowers women to take charge of their health and well-being at every stage of life.

A Comprehensive Approach to Women's Health

RenuGyn offers an extensive range of services designed to address the diverse needs of women throughout their lives. Clinical gynecology services include treatment for urinary incontinence, Bulkamid incontinence injections, Emsella therapy, abnormal uterine bleeding, and sexual pain disorder management. The practice also provides concierge gynecology care for patients seeking a more personalized and accessible experience.

In the area of cosmetic gynecology, RenuGyn offers labiaplasty consultations, laser vaginal rejuvenation, vaginal rejuvenation, and the O-Shot procedure. These services are performed with a strong emphasis on patient safety, informed consent, and long-term clinical outcomes.

Wellness services at RenuGyn encompass perimenopause hormone balancing, medically supervised weight management, nutrition and immune support, and postpartum body contouring — reflecting the practice's commitment to whole-person care.

About Dr. Peahen Gandhi

Dr. Peahen Gandhi is a triple board-certified physician with extensive training and expertise in women's health, gynecology, and cosmetic gynecology. Her approach to patient care is grounded in the principles of clinical excellence, respectful communication, and individualized treatment planning.
