

Spanish Techno Artist Frank Beat Shares His Latest EP

With more than 25 years behind the decks, Frank Beat continues his journey in techno with a new release built on groove, energy, and experience.

Barcelona, Spain Jun 6, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Spanish DJ and producer Frank Beat has released his latest EP, adding another chapter to a career that has spanned more than two decades in electronic music.

With over 25 years of DJ experience and more than 15 years in music production, Frank Beat has developed a distinctive sound rooted in groove-driven techno and hard techno. His work has gained support from respected names in the scene, including Rebekah, PETDuo, Fatima Hajji, and Sebastian Groth.

The new EP reflects the style that has defined Frank Beat's music over the years—powerful rhythms, driving grooves, and an authentic underground techno spirit. Created for both dedicated techno listeners and dance floor enthusiasts, the release captures the energy and passion that continue to inspire his work.

Over the years, Frank Beat has performed throughout Spain and across Europe, connecting with audiences through his energetic sets and commitment to the craft. This latest release represents his ongoing dedication to creating music that stays true to the roots of techno while continuing to evolve.

Listeners can stream the EP on Spotify and stay connected through his official social channels.
