

Team Group DRAM Settlement Offers Cash Claims for U.S. Buyers Through July 7, 2026

The $1.1 million settlement covers eligible Team Group DDR-3, DDR-4, and DDR-5 DRAM purchases made in the United States from May 3, 2020 through April 8, 2026.

New York City, New York Jun 12, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Team Group DRAM Settlement Offers Cash Claims for U.S. Buyers Through July 7, 2026

U.S. consumers who purchased qualifying Team Group DDR-3, DDR-4, or DDR-5 DRAM products between May 3, 2020 and April 8, 2026 may be eligible to file a claim in a $1.1 million class action settlement. According to the official settlement website, claims must be submitted by July 7, 2026, and up to five qualifying purchases per household may be claimed without proof of purchase.

The settlement resolves Griffin et al. v. Team Group, Inc., Case No. 2:24-cv-03681, pending in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. The notice states that the lawsuit alleged Team Group deceptively advertised and labeled the speed of certain DRAM products, while Team Group denies the allegations and denies any wrongdoing.

The settlement class includes individuals in the United States who purchased one or more Team Group DDR-3, DDR-4, and/or DDR-5 dynamic random-access memory products during the class period. The official settlement website states that eligible claimants may receive a pro rata cash payment based on the number of qualifying products purchased.

Key dates in the notice include a claim deadline of July 7, 2026, and exclusion and objection deadlines of June 22, 2026. The final fairness hearing is scheduled for September 3, 2026. The official settlement website is TeamGroupDRAMSettlement.com.

Questions about the settlement may be directed to the Settlement Administrator, TGG Settlement Administrator c/o Angeion Group, 1650 Arch St., Suite 2210, Philadelphia, PA 19103. The notice lists the toll-free number as 866-545-4202 and the email address as info@TeamGroupDRAMSettlement.com.
