Tim Place: Your Trusted Real Estate Broker in Western North Carolina

with Weichert, Realtors® – Unlimited, is dedicated to providing exceptional service to buyers and sellers throughout Western North Carolina and beyond. Based in Swannanoa, Tim’s people-first approach to real estate ensures that clients’ best interests are at the forefront of every transaction, guiding them through negotiations and contract execution with expertise and care.

With a diverse background in the food-service industry and years spent in long-term care settings, Tim has cultivated a deep commitment to service that he now channels into his real estate practice. His unique qualifications include holding the Seniors Real Estate Specialist (SRES) designation and being a certified Senior Transition Specialist (STS) with Premier Senior Transitions. This expertise makes him particularly adept at assisting seniors and their families during one of life’s most significant transitions—navigating the complexities of senior care placement that often begins with selling a family home.

Tim’s personal experience caring for a family member at home gives him a compassionate, firsthand understanding of the challenges families face. Whether working with first-time homebuyers, seasoned investors, or families experiencing major life changes, Tim is devoted to helping clients find their next home, investment property, or business location. As a homeowner and real estate investor himself, he brings practical insights and advice to every client relationship.

“I believe that doing right by people is the foundation of everything I have built in my real estate career,” said Tim. “Being honest, staying true to my word, and genuinely caring about my clients’ outcomes are what drive me every day. For me, real estate is more than a career; it’s a way to show up for my community, connecting individuals with the right home, investment, or business space while building lasting relationships.”

When he’s not assisting clients, Tim enjoys exploring the local food scene and hitting the trails, always on the hunt for the next great restaurant or hidden gem in the area.

Tim Place is proud to serve the greater Asheville area and the broader Western North Carolina community that he and his family call home.
