

Top 50 Voices of Influence to Stream Live on Apple TV, Roku, & Amazon Fire

50 Influential Women. One Global Stage. One Powerful Television Experience.

Glendale, Arizona Jun 11, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - The highly anticipated Top 50 Voices of Influence, founded by visionary entrepreneur and women's leadership advocate Criss Madrigal, is taking visibility and influence to the next level with a special live television broadcast in partnership with Million Dollar Network.

This transformational virtual experience will bring together 50 powerful women leaders, entrepreneurs, authors, speakers, coaches, and changemakers from around the world to share their stories, wisdom, and expertise. As a featured highlight of the event, one of the event days will be professionally broadcast live on Million Dollar Network and streamed internationally across Apple TV, Roku, Amazon Fire, and iOS, giving participants the opportunity to share their message with a television audience beyond the virtual event itself.

The Top 50 Voices of Influence was created to celebrate women who are making a meaningful impact in business, leadership, media, and their communities while providing attendees with inspiration, practical strategies, and transformational conversations.

“Women have powerful stories, valuable expertise, and voices that deserve to be heard on bigger stages,” said Criss Madrigal. “This experience is about creating opportunities for women to step into greater visibility, share their message with confidence, and inspire others through their journey.”

Throughout the multi-day experience, attendees will hear from 50 influential women covering topics ranging from entrepreneurship and leadership to personal growth, resilience, purpose, influence, and impact.

Participants and attendees can expect:

- Inspiring presentations from influential women leaders
- Expert insights on leadership, business growth, visibility, and influence
- Authentic stories of transformation, perseverance, and success
- Global networking opportunities and meaningful connections
- Practical strategies to increase impact and elevate authority
- A unique opportunity to participate in an event that includes a live television broadcast reaching audiences worldwide

The partnership with Million Dollar Network adds an exciting media component to the experience, allowing selected event content to reach viewers through major streaming platforms while showcasing the voices and expertise of today’s emerging and established women leaders.

A Platform for Women’s Voices

In an era where visibility and influence are more important than ever, the Top 50 Voices of Influence stands as a powerful platform dedicated to helping women be seen, heard, and recognized for the impact they are making in the world.

The event’s television broadcast on Million Dollar Network further amplifies this mission by providing women with an opportunity to share their message through a global media platform dedicated to highlighting inspiring voices and transformational stories.
