Moore Lee encourages all eligible voters to make a plan to vote and participate in this important election that will help shape the future of District 27A, Charles County, Prince George's County, and communities across Southern Maryland.

Currently serving as the elected representative for District 4 on the Charles County Board of Education, Moore Lee has helped oversee a $529 million budget, supported initiatives that improve student achievement, and championed accountability, transparency, and educational equity throughout one of Maryland's largest public school systems.

Her leadership has earned statewide and national recognition through service with the National School Boards Association, the Maryland Association of Boards of Education, and the National Black Council of School Board Members.

"Public service is not about titles—it's about impact," said Moore Lee. "I'm running for Delegate because our families deserve leadership that understands policy, knows how to navigate complex systems, and is committed to delivering measurable results."

A Vision for Stronger Schools, Safer Communities, and Greater Opportunity

Moore Lee's campaign platform focuses on six key priorities that directly impact working families, students, seniors, veterans, and business owners throughout District 27A.

Strengthening Public Education

Moore Lee supports fully funding Maryland's public schools, expanding career and technical education opportunities, and ensuring every student has access to a high-quality education that prepares them for college, careers, and lifelong success.

Economic Growth and Workforce Development

Her plan prioritizes creating pathways to good-paying jobs, supporting workforce training programs, expanding economic opportunities, and helping local small businesses thrive.

Healthcare Access and Health Equity

Moore Lee advocates for affordable, high-quality healthcare while addressing disparities in mental health services, maternal healthcare, and preventative care.

Public Safety and Community Partnerships

She supports evidence-based violence prevention strategies, expanded mental health resources, and collaborative community partnerships that build trust and create safer neighborhoods.

Affordable Housing Solutions

Her campaign supports responsible development, increased housing affordability, and policies that protect both renters and homeowners while expanding access to quality housing options.

Transportation and Infrastructure Improvements

Moore Lee is committed to advocating for reliable public transportation, safer roads, reduced commute times, and infrastructure investments that support sustainable economic growth throughout Southern Maryland.

Leadership Built on Service

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Moore Lee is the proud wife of a decorated United States Marine Corps combat veteran and the mother of three. Her diverse career experience includes family law, criminal law, veterans law, mediation, education governance, and small business ownership.

As an attorney and certified mediator, she has developed a reputation for bringing people together, solving complex challenges, and delivering practical solutions that improve lives and strengthen communities.

Her leadership style is collaborative, data-driven, transparent, and community-focused—qualities that supporters say are needed in Annapolis now more than ever.

Join the Movement

Moore Lee is inviting residents throughout District 27A to become part of a growing movement focused on accountable leadership, community engagement, and meaningful results.

"Together, we can strengthen our schools, grow our economy, protect our communities, and ensure opportunity for every family," said Moore Lee. "This campaign is about advocacy through action."

Voters are encouraged to make a plan to vote during Maryland Early Voting from June 11–18, 2026, or on Primary Election Day, June 23, 2026.
