

250 Years, 5 Books: Dex System's Must-Read List for America's Biggest Birthday

Kicking off the summer stretch of the anniversary campaign with a bold reading list

New Rochelle, New York Jul 1, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - With July 4th on the horizon, Dex System unveils its official Summer Reading List for the Semiquincentennial — five titles built for beach bags, road trips, and porch reading all season long.

Rane Corvus' Sovereign Sync and Sovereign Sync II: The Author Protocol anchor the list with a genre-defining series, delivering the kind of sprawling, high-stakes world-building that rewards long stretches of uninterrupted summer reading. They're joined by Chad Winthrop's Starman and Zoules The Magnificent's Souls Beneath for readers craving big, immersive summer fiction — stories built to be devoured in a single sitting under an umbrella or across a long drive. Rounding out the list, Ronald Bartholomew's The Good Ghost: A Tale of Choice E-Drive offers a more introspective read for evenings when the pace slows down, but the appetite for a good story doesn't.

Whether readers are packing for the coast, the mountains, or just clearing an afternoon on the porch, this list is designed to make the anniversary summer a memorable one — pairing entertainment with the kind of ambitious storytelling that's become a hallmark of the Dex System catalog
