Angela Reid: Licensed REALTOR® and Certified Listing Professional with Five Star Real Estate in Grandville, Michigan

Grandville, Michigan Jul 1, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Grandville, Michigan – Angela Reid, a Licensed REALTOR® and Certified Listing Professional with Five Star Real Estate, is dedicated to serving clients across West Michigan with integrity, knowledge, and a highly personalized approach to real estate. A lifelong resident of the region, Angela combines deep local insight with more than 16 years of experience in the construction industry, giving her a unique advantage in understanding property value, structural quality, and market dynamics.

Throughout her career, Angela has become known for her exceptional customer service, strong organizational skills, and unwavering commitment to client success. She places strong emphasis on building lasting relationships and approaches each transaction with patience, attentiveness, and a focus on exceeding client expectations at every stage of the buying or selling process.

“I take every transaction personally, understanding that buying or selling a home is not just a business deal but a significant life event,” said Angela. “I’m dedicated to taking the stress out of the process by being there every step of the way.”

Angela has developed a particular passion for working with first-time homebuyers, guiding them through each step of the home-purchasing journey with clarity and confidence. Her detail-oriented and supportive approach helps clients feel informed and empowered as they navigate one of the most important financial and personal decisions of their lives.

By combining her construction background with her real estate expertise, Angela provides clients with a comprehensive understanding of properties beyond surface-level presentation. This allows her to offer valuable insight into condition, potential improvements, and long-term investment value.

For Angela Reid, real estate is more than a profession—it is a commitment to making a meaningful difference in the lives of the people she serves throughout West Michigan.
