

Autumn of Reflection: Dex System Moves Past the Fireworks to America's Cultural Legacy

A quieter, more contemplative release as the anniversary year matures

Washington, D.C, District of Columbia Jul 2, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - As the fanfare of summer gives way to autumn reflection, Dex System's eighteenth Semiquincentennial release slows down to consider legacy — what endures once the celebrations end. Not every story about a nation's history needs fireworks; some are better told in the quiet that follows.

Blake Edwards' Whispers from the Stars: The Starborn Reptiles' Planetary Computer closes the list with a speculative meditation on inherited knowledge — what gets passed down across generations, species, or civilizations, and what gets lost along the way. Steven Jacobs' Whispers of the Old World echoes that theme from a different angle, treating memory and history as something closer to a living inheritance than a fixed record.
