Our non-alcoholic drinks portfolio caters to restaurants, bars, hotels, offices, caterers, event venues and private functions throughout London. From premium soft drinks and sparkling beverages to mixers, juices and alcohol-free options, we provide businesses with access to products that complement a wide variety of settings and customer requirements.

The demand for non-alcoholic beverages has grown significantly in recent years as hospitality venues look to accommodate changing lifestyles and preferences. Whether customers are hosting corporate meetings, private celebrations, conferences or large-scale events, access to a dependable wholesale drinks supplier remains essential. We are committed to ensuring that businesses can source quality beverages efficiently and with confidence.

At Bardome Limited t/a Magic Drinks, our focus extends beyond product availability. We aim to make wholesale ordering straightforward by offering a flexible service model that includes free delivery and no minimum order requirements. This approach allows our customers to manage stock levels effectively while maintaining a diverse drinks offering for guests and clients.

Alongside our non-alcoholic range, we continue to supply an extensive selection of bottled water, wines, beers, spirits and other refreshments to businesses across London. By maintaining a comprehensive wholesale portfolio, we help hospitality operators and organisations streamline their beverage procurement through a single, reliable supplier.

As London's hospitality and events sectors continue to evolve, we remain dedicated to supporting businesses with products that meet modern expectations. Our team regularly reviews and expands our drinks selection to ensure customers have access to both established favourites and emerging choices within the non-alcoholic category.
