London, United Kingdom Jul 12, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - The British Polygraph Network has been named Best Polygraph Company at the 9th Annual Greater London Enterprise Award 2026, adding to a series of industry recognitions received by the London-based organization and its examiners over recent years.

The award follows previous honors received by the company and its Managing Director Agata Koziol, who was recognized as the Best Female Polygrapher in the UK. The British Polygraph Network also received the UK Enterprise Award for polygraph services in 2024.

The company's senior examiner, Don Cargill, has also received several industry awards. In 2023, he was named Best Polygraph Examiner at the 7th Annual SME Awards following earlier recognition, including Most Trusted Supplier of Polygraph Services 2022 and Polygraph Company of the Year 2022.

In 2022, he received the Lifetime Achievement Award for Polygraph Excellence from the prestigious British and European Polygraph Association.

Mr Cargill graduated in 2006 and has undertaken many thousands of tests, many of which are high-profile cases

He is a highly sought-after speaker both in the UK and internationally.
