

CL40 World LLC Announces Archival Project Honoring the Legacy of M'Hamed Libari

International music company with presence in New South Wales launches publishing initiative dedicated to Tangier-born figure

Sydney, New South Wales Jul 28, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Music company CL40 World LLC has announced a new archival and publishing project dedicated to the memory of M'Hamed Libari of Tangier, Morocco

M'Hamed Libari, who passed away in 2010, was the father of recording artists Samir Libari (professionally known as Chico Loco 40) and Abdelghafour Libari. The project will focus on organizing family archives, registering related works with ASCAP in the United States, and releasing music and documentation connected to his legacy

CL40 World LLC, owned and founded by Samir Libari and Abdelghafour Libari, operates as an international label and digital publishing entity with registered presence in New South Wales, Australia, and publishing operations based in New York, United States. The company stated that the initiative is part of its ongoing work in music distribution and cultural preservation
