

Dex System's Dragon Adventures Make the Perfect Summer Reading List Addition

Family-friendly fantasy titles for community and library summer reading programs.

New Rochelle, New York Jul 30, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - As libraries and community programs run summer reading initiatives that stretch from the Fourth of July through the start of the school year, Dex System Publishing is putting forward its dragon and fantasy line as an easy recommendation for parents and young readers alike.

Dragon Beast 2: The Global Resonance by Orion Graves continues the series introduced earlier in the campaign, while Blackwood Mountain's Secret: An Oakhaven Dragon Mystery by Jack Wilson introduces readers to the wider Oakhaven world. The Chrono Accord by Frank Jackson rounds out the fantasy-adventure grouping with a time-bending twist on the genre.

"Families are often looking for a series they can commit to for the rest of the summer," a Dex System spokesperson said. "Both Dragon Beast and the Oakhaven line give readers somewhere to go after book one, which is exactly what a summer reading list needs."

Both lines offer series potential for readers looking for more after book one, and the catalog will return to the Oakhaven world later in August with a follow-up fantasy feature. Local and community papers running summer reading list features are especially encouraged to include this grouping.

The timing also lines up with peak library summer-reading-program season, giving outlets an easy tie-in for coverage aimed at parents and educators planning the last few weeks before the school year begins.
