New Rochelle, New York Jul 2, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - For readers who want their holiday weekend to move as fast as the fireworks overhead, Dex System's fourteenth Semiquincentennial release delivers gripping thrillers and dramas built for binge-reading. No slow burns here — just tight plotting and high stakes for the stretch of couch time between cookouts.

Tomison Peters' The Hard Handover: An Owner's Manual for the 2026 Transition brings sharp contemporary tension, tracking a high-stakes transfer of power with the pacing of a countdown clock. Steven Jacobs' The Infinite Spiral and Preston Ashcroft's The Fabric of the Hill round out a list of unputdownable summer fiction, trading political intrigue for creation myths and psychedelic Americana — proof that this holiday's reading list has range as well as speed.
