

GLP Lawyers International Delivers On Strategic Expansion With Four New Hires Including YouTuber & Content Director

GLP Lawyers International is pleased to announce the appointment of four new team members, YouTuber and Content Lead Jack Alderton, solicitor Eric Lund, senior deal analyst William Knight and paralegal Declan Fang to its Perth office.

Perth, Western Australia Jul 9, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - The new appointments below reflect the firm's continued investment in legal talent, innovation and client service as demand for its Australian and international practice continues to grow.

Eric Lund – Lawyer

Eric Lund joins GLP Lawyers as a solicitor, bringing experience across litigation and client advocacy. Eric has quickly established himself as a diligent and capable practitioner with a strong commitment to achieving practical outcomes for clients. His appointment further strengthens the firm's ability to manage complex disputes and deliver responsive legal services across Western Australia.

Will Knight – Senior Deal Analyst

Will Knight joins the firm as a Deal Analyst and Paralegal, supporting both legal matters and commercial transactions. His analytical approach and attention to detail enhance the firm's ability to assist clients with business acquisitions, international structuring, due diligence and strategic advisory work. Will also play an important role in supporting the firm's growing cross-border practice throughout Australia and Malaysia.

Jack Alderton – Senior Deal Analyst & Content Director

Content creator and entrepreneur Jack Alderton joins GLP Lawyers as Strategic Media & Growth Consultant. Jack will lead the firm's digital education initiatives, producing high-quality content focused on Australian law, business relocation, Malaysian residency pathways, Labuan corporate structures and international investment opportunities.

His appointment represents a significant step in the firm's commitment to making legal information more accessible while expanding GLP Lawyers' international presence through digital media.

Declan Fang – Paralegal

One of the youngest members of the firm's legal team, Declan Fang joins as a Paralegal while continuing his academic studies. Outside the office, Declan works part-time in the hospitality industry and performs with his school orchestra, demonstrating the discipline and commitment that he brings to his legal career. At GLP Lawyers, Declan assists with legal research, document preparation and client support across multiple practice areas.

Investing in the Next Generation

Commenting on the appointments, the law firm's chief executive Nigel Lo's issued statement read:

"These appointments represent far more than growth in numbers. Each individual brings a unique skill set that strengthens our ability to serve clients both locally and internationally. We are building a multidisciplinary team that combines legal excellence with commercial insight, strategic thinking and modern communication."

"As our practice continues to expand across Australia, Sarawak and Labuan, we remain committed to investing in talented people who share our vision of delivering practical, commercially focused legal solutions."

The appointments form part of GLP Lawyers' broader expansion strategy, which includes strengthening its commercial litigation practice, international advisory services, estate planning, migration and residency solutions, and digital client engagement.
