

Ideal Garage Doors Celebrates 15 Years

Ideal Garage Doors marks 15 years in business. A commitment to customer service has sustained them in the garage door repair industry.

Dallas, Texas Jul 23, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Ideal Garage Doors began operating in 2011. This year marks their 15th anniversary of business.

Operating a successful, small, family-owned business is a notable task. In the garage door industry, it is especially challenging. With the population growth in the Dallas Metroplex in recent years, competition is fierce.

In addition, home services, in general, and garage door repair, in particular, are known for being filled with questionable business practices.

Ideal Garage Doors has not only survived, but thrived, by focusing on the basics of honest work and fair pricing. This leads to keeping costs reasonable, which in turn keeps customers happy and loyal, as evidenced by over 400 5-star Google reviews.

Ideal Garage Doors is genuinely small, with only two technicians: the owner and one employee.

As a full-service garage door company, they provide everything from basic door maintenance to garage spring repairs to completely new garage door installations. They also work on commercial garage doors for small business owners.

They specialize in being able to repair equipment. Many garage door companies in the industry prefer to install new equipment. While there may be good reasons for new equipment, it is often more profitable for businesses to replace rather than repair.

Patrick Johnson is the owner of Ideal Garage Doors, and he has years of experience repairing items that most other techs don't work on. Homeowners throughout Dallas appreciate this approach, as repairing an item is often more cost-effective for the homeowner.

Does that mean Ideal Garage Doors is the best garage door repair service in Dallas? "We like to think we're the best," states Johnson. "We aren't perfect, of course, but we do our best to make customers satisfied."

The goal at Ideal Garage Doors is to deliver quality work at fair pricing. A common complaint in the garage door industry is pushing expensive replacements. Ideal Garage Doors prefers to focus on repair first, and replace only if requested by the homeowner or if absolutely needed.

Ideal Garage Doors serves Dallas County and Collin County, including Dallas, Richardson, Garland, Rockwall, Plano, Allen, McKinney, Murphy, and Wylie.
