

Influential Women Features Rebecca Wilsey, RN, MSN: Charge Nurse Advancing Clinical Leadership At Novant Health PMC

Combining Surgical Expertise, Leadership, and Mentorship to Support Exceptional Patient Care and the Next Generation of Nurses

Charlotte, North Carolina Jul 17, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Rebecca Wilsey, RN, MSN, is an accomplished operating room nurse and healthcare leader whose career spans more than 15 years of service, leadership, and dedication to patient care. With extensive experience in trauma surgery, perioperative nursing, and team leadership, she has built a reputation for clinical excellence and unwavering commitment to supporting both patients and fellow healthcare professionals.

Rebecca's healthcare journey began at just 16 years old when she started working as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). Determined to continue advancing her knowledge and skills, she steadily progressed through every stage of nursing education, earning her Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) certification and Associate of Science Degree from Morgan Community College, her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Regis University, and her Master of Science in Nursing from Grand Canyon University.

Today, Rebecca serves as a Clinical Coordinator and weekend night shift charge nurse at Novant Health's Presbyterian Medical Center, a Level II trauma facility in Charlotte, North Carolina. In this role, she oversees operating room operations during critical overnight hours, leading interdisciplinary teams of nurses and surgical technologists through emergency and urgent surgical procedures. Her responsibilities include ensuring the highest standards of sterile technique, patient safety, and clinical efficiency while managing complex and high-pressure situations.

Known for her calm and decisive leadership, Rebecca has earned the trust and respect of physicians, Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetists (CRNAs), and colleagues who rely on her expertise and sound judgment during some of the most challenging moments in patient care.

Throughout her career, Rebecca has worked across the country as both a travel nurse and charge nurse, gaining valuable experience in trauma centers, outpatient surgery centers, and hospital systems in Colorado, Georgia, Virginia, and North Carolina, as well as internationally. This diverse background has provided her with a broad perspective on healthcare delivery and strengthened her ability to adapt, lead, and collaborate in a variety of clinical settings.

Equally passionate about education and mentorship, Rebecca regularly teaches and precepts nurses on her shift, helping prepare the next generation of perioperative professionals to succeed in the fast-paced environment of weekend night trauma surgery.

Rebecca Wilsey's career reflects resilience, determination, and a lifelong dedication to advancing patient care. Through her leadership, clinical expertise, and commitment to mentoring others, she continues to make a meaningful impact on the nursing profession and the patients and colleagues she serves every day.
