

IssueWire Launches Freedom to Get Published Campaign to Help Businesses Access Professional PR Distribution Services

In the spirit of U.S. Independence Day, IssueWire has launched its “Freedom to Get Published” initiative to make its professional press release distribution services more accessible through a limited-time 15% discount from July 7 to July 15.

The banner features the IssueWire logo and the headline "Freedom to Get Published Professional Press Release Distribution Services". Below the headline, it says "Expand your story across trusted media channels with professional press release distribution." A woman in a blue blazer stands in a newsroom setting with various media outlets listed on a screen behind her, including News, Business, The Mirror, The Sun, CNN, NewsWire, Cultural, and The News Press. A badge in the top right corner reads "JULY PUBLISHING EVENT | 15% Savings". At the bottom, a dark blue bar contains the text "Use Code: VOICE26 July 7 – July 15, 2026" and "Trusted Media Distribution • 700+ Media Outlets".

New York City, New York Jul 7, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - IssueWire today announced the launch of its "Freedom to Get Published" campaign, inspired by the spirit of U.S. Independence Day, for businesses, brands, and individuals seeking professional press release distribution services. The campaign offers a 15% discount on its press release distribution services from July 7 to July 15 in order to help customers gain access to a broader media distribution network. All that clients need to do is apply the Coupon Code - VOICE26 at the time of purchase, and the discount will be added to their package.

IssueWire offers five different kinds of PR distribution packages, namely Tier 1, Tier 1 Pro, Tier 2, Tier 2 Pro, and the recently launched Tier 2 Premium. Introduced to expand the company's U.S. media distribution network, Tier 2 Premium provides access to an enhanced distribution network for organizations seeking broader media coverage. The company's distribution network combines reputed newswires, media outlets, and digital platforms, serving a wide range of industries. IssueWire's media distribution network allows companies to access to more than 700 media outlets for press release distribution.

A Spokesperson for IssueWire said, "For many growing businesses, securing meaningful media coverage remains both a challenge and a significant investment. This campaign is designed to make professional press release distribution more accessible, allowing startups, entrepreneurs, and established organizations alike to amplify their stories through trusted media channels without compromising on quality".

The company offers US Nationwide distribution, which allows gaining more attention across the U.S market. Each package for distribution includes additional features like SEO mass ping and audio, link embeds for Vimeo and YouTube, permanent hosting, image addition, mobile distribution, and others that make the campaigns more effective.

With businesses facing growing competition for earned media coverage, IssueWire has announced its "Freedom to Get Published" campaign to encourage more organizations to leverage professional PR distribution as part of their communications strategy.

IssueWire understands the needs of startups, rising companies, and emerging brands, as they also deserve the freedom to get published. Its impactful PR services can be availed of by all kinds of business owners, even those who have a tight budget. Clients can now get a 15% discount on PR distribution services from July 7 to July 15 by applying the Coupon Code - VOICE26.
