Kool Sport Inc. has been in business for over 15 years. Mr. Ivan Thorpe, the inventor and President of Kool Sport Inc. is a former teacher and football player. While observing the lunch rooms, Mr. Thorpe found it odd that all of the lunch boxes had the same shape and size and many featured popular children's television shows, cartoons, characters and/or superheroes of the time. The tedium sparked an idea and he began to envision a different kind of lunch box, one that would outlive the popularity of a character, and would be practical yet shaped like a football, soccer ball, baseball basketball or even a hockey puck.

In its first stage Kool Sport attracted and partnered with Pittsburgh Steelers, hall of fame great, Franco Harris and Lynn Swann. This supported stage 1, and we also had partner with Leroy Thompson from the the Pittsburgh Steelers and Kansas City Chiefs

Kool Sport Inc., a licensed Pennsylvania corporation, offers a unique line of youth-oriented Novelty Sport Packs, personalized to preference. After successfully manufacturing, marketing, and distribution of their line of hard plastic balls. Kool Sport is now pursuing expansion with the creation of a full line of Novelty Sport "Soft" Packs designed in Soccer ball, Basketball, Baseball and Football shapes.
