Mumbai Independent Music Producer Asli Pradeepsingh Announces 13-Track Cinematic Album Destiny of Love

Set for a September rollout, the upcoming conceptual album bridges raw underground energy with high-end cinematic soundscapes.

Mumbai, Maharashtra Jul 24, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Independent music producer, songwriter, and solo artist Asli Pradeepsingh is set to make a massive impact in the indie music space with his upcoming debut 13-track cinematic album, Destiny of Love. Based in Mumbai, Asli Pradeepsingh is widely recognized for crafting aggressive, narrative-driven cinematic soundscapes designed to take listeners on an immersive emotional journey.

Scheduled for a strategic rollout starting this September, Destiny of Love is a deeply personal conceptual body of work exploring various phases of human emotion, struggle, and connection. Every single track functions as a chapter within a larger cinematic universe, meticulously produced and engineered to hit listeners on a visceral level.

"With Destiny of Love, my vision was to build an entire cinematic universe through sound rather than just putting out random tracks," states Asli Pradeepsingh.

As the release window approaches this September, music enthusiasts and fans can follow the official rollout across major streaming platforms and digital networks linked via his official portal: https://linktr.ee/aslipradeepsingh
