

World-Renowned Director Kovács "Kovi" István Partners with Stonewell Empire for Global Expansion

The Multi-Award-Winning European director signs a strategic production agreement with UK-based Stonewell Empire Limited, launching interactive digital media ventures, podcasts, and worldwide catalog distribution.

London, United Kingdom Jul 17, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Kovács "Kovi" István, the multi-award-winning director and producer, is officially returning to the entertainment industry. In a strategic move designed to expand his global reach, Kovi has signed a long-term, project-based service framework agreement with Stonewell Productions, the trading name of the UK-based enterprise Stonewell Empire Limited.

Following an extended hiatus from the industry, the director is returning to establish his production activities on an international scale.

A New Framework for Fan-Focused Media

The partnership marks an evolution in Kovi's creative ventures, focusing on digital media production, interactive content, and audience engagement. Through the agreement with Stonewell Productions, Kovi is launching a suite of business and creative initiatives, including:

- Talent Casting and Development: Talent acquisition for new media projects.
- Exclusive Podcast Series: In-depth discussions covering his career in independent filmmaking and production insights.
- Coaching and Mentorship Programs: Educational tracks for emerging content creators and producers.
- Interactive Focus Groups: Virtual, limited-capacity sessions offering direct access to the filmmaker.
- Catalog Distribution: Digital streaming management for his legacy media portfolio.

Speaking on his return, Kovi emphasized a focus on story-driven projects:

"For me, it's about narrative entertainment for mature audiences," - said Kovi. "My focus is on creating compelling stories, returning to the industry purely from an artistic and directorial standpoint."

Corporate and Distribution Infrastructure

While Kovi maintains an established presence in European media, Stonewell Productions will manage the technological and distribution framework to support his international operations.

Thomas Stonewell, representing Stonewell Empire Limited, highlighted the scope of the collaboration:

"Our focus is providing the global infrastructure, production capability, and media distribution networks necessary to support Kovi's artistic vision," -stated Stonewell. "Our multi-dimensional operations are positioned to manage the technological side of his upcoming releases."

The project-based service agreement, executed on July 11, 2026, encompasses video production, audio recording, media representation, and strategic business support services.

About Kovács "Kovi" István

Kovács "Kovi" István is an internationally recognized photojournalist, producer, and director known for his work in European independent cinema. A four-time international film industry award recipient in Las Vegas, Kovi is recognized for a narrative-driven, aesthetic approach to cinematography.

About Stonewell Empire Limited

Stonewell Empire Limited, trading as Stonewell Productions, is a £32 million British enterprise specializing in multimedia creation, hybrid technology, music mastering, and global media distribution. Operating out of Suffolk, England, Stonewell Productions provides technological and production infrastructure for creators and media projects worldwide.

Media Contact

Stonewell Productions Press Office
Stonewell Empire Limited

Unit 82a James Carter Road, Mildenhall,

Bury St. Edmunds, England, IP28 7DE

Email: press@stonewellart.com

Website: www.stonewellart.com

Media Contact

Stonewell Productions

@stonewellempire.com

<http://www.stonewellart.com>

Source : Stonewell Productions

See on IssueWire