

A Mid-Autumn Suzhou-Style Feast at Red Lantern Solaire Resort

Traditional and Suzhou-style mooncakes, cultural gift sets, and limited-edition drinks are available at Red Lantern Solaire in celebration of the Mid-Autumn Festival

Manila, Luzon Aug 17, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - More than 3,000 years ago, around the autumn equinox, Chinese emperors of the Zhou Dynasty performed sacred rituals under the moon: they lit candles and presented offerings of round pastries, drinks, and seasonal fruits, believing these would bring a bountiful harvest in the coming year. Over the centuries, this tradition evolved into what is now celebrated as the Mid-Autumn Festival. Joining the festivities, Solaire Resort brings a new selection of mooncakes at Red Lantern, both at Solaire Resort Quezon City and Solaire Resort Entertainment City.

Delicately presented in elegant gift boxes, Red Lantern's handcrafted mooncakes honor authentic Chinese culinary heritage, elevated with contemporary flavors that lend a sophisticated twist to every bite.

The traditional mooncake menu is in an elegant box of four, featuring the Cantonese-style Fresh Abalone Mooncake, low-sugar Traditional Double Egg Yolk White Lotus Paste Mooncake, Taro Paste and Osmanthus Mooncake, and the Red Wine and Cranberry Mooncake.

Exemplifying this year's collection are the meticulously baked Suzhou-style Mooncakes, distinguished by their delicate, multi-layered flaky crust, a signature of the centuries-old pastry tradition. Served individually or in a box of four, the assortment showcases inventive flavor combinations, including the Chilled Mango Sago Cream with Pomelo Bird's Nest Mooncake, a redefined interpretation inspired by the beloved Filipino dessert.

Equally irresistible is the Butter Pastry Pandan Mooncake, which pays homage to pandan, affectionately known as "Southeast Asia's Vanilla," with its fragrant, naturally sweet aroma.

No Mid-Autumn celebration is complete without the perfect tea pairing. To elevate the gifting experience, the collection also features the Scent of Full Moon Tea Set, which includes a tea strainer, 100 grams of Tisane de la Princesse, and 100 grams of the floral Original Marie Antoinette Blend. Together, these soothing companions enhance the delicate flavors of the mooncakes.

For those wishing to raise a toast in exceptional style, the limited-edition Signature Chef's Imperial Box pairs four traditional mooncakes with a 50ml bottle of Louis XIII. The collection also presents two Cognac-infused mooncakes capturing the spirit of the Mid-Autumn Festival.
