

B.F. Raid and Loud Enough Magazine Announce September 1 Video Premiere for “The Greatest Show in Town”

New video from B.F. Raid’s latest album, Combat Zone, will premiere simultaneously on Facebook, X and Bluesky

Boston, Massachusetts Aug 18, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Boston-area heavy metal band B.F. Raid has announced that the official video for “The Greatest Show in Town” will premiere through Loud Enough Magazine on Tuesday, September 1, 2026, at 4:00 p.m. UK time and 11:00 a.m. Eastern Time.

The video will be presented simultaneously through Loud Enough Magazine's Facebook, X and Bluesky channels, giving metal fans throughout the United States, the United Kingdom and beyond an opportunity to experience one of the standout tracks from B.F. Raid's new album, Combat Zone.

Loud Enough Magazine's Darren Goulding confirmed the premiere after receiving the track and praised the song, saying he "really liked the track." The upcoming feature continues Loud Enough Magazine's ongoing support of B.F. Raid and its commitment to helping independent rock and metal artists reach a wider international audience.

"Darren and Loud Enough Magazine have always been incredibly supportive of B.F. Raid, and we sincerely appreciate everything they have done for us," said guitarist and co-founder Bruce Owens. "We are excited to have Loud Enough Magazine premiere the video for 'The Greatest Show in Town.' This is an important song from Combat Zone, and we are looking forward to sharing the video with longtime supporters and people who may be discovering the band for the first time."

"The Greatest Show in Town" appears on B.F. Raid's second album, Combat Zone, released on July 30, 2026. The 10-song, approximately 52-minute album serves as an audio documentary inspired by the people, places, struggles and unforgettable experiences that defined growing up and living in and around Boston.

Rather than presenting a polished or romanticized version of the city, Combat Zone draws from the real character of Boston and the lives of the people who experienced it firsthand. The album combines heavy riffs, powerful vocals, driving rhythms and vivid storytelling to capture the toughness, humor, chaos and resilience that run through the band's history.

"The Greatest Show in Town" reflects that larger vision, combining B.F. Raid's traditional heavy-metal foundation with the direct, street-level storytelling found throughout Combat Zone. The song stands alongside album tracks including "Bullets From the Board," "Divebar Allstars," "Down But Not Out," "On Causeway," "Pillow Princess," "Punchdrunk," "The Day I Killed Brian Scott," "Three Days Under" and "What You Crave."

Combat Zone was recorded at The Record Co. in Boston with engineer Jamie Rowe. The sessions brought together the band's current lineup of Bill Kotowski on vocals, Bruce Owens on guitar and keyboards, Matt "Moose" Howard on bass, and Jamie Forbes on drums.

The album follows B.F. Raid's 2024 release, Raided Again, which helped reintroduce the band to listeners and generated airplay and media coverage for songs including "Becky," "Hollywood With Snakes" and "Angel." With Combat Zone, B.F. Raid has expanded its sound and placed an even greater emphasis on storytelling, atmosphere and the shared experiences behind the music.

Since its release, Combat Zone has received an enthusiastic response from listeners, with the new album surpassing the total streaming activity of Raided Again's first two years in less than two weeks. That early response has helped introduce B.F. Raid to a growing audience while strengthening the connection between the band and the supporters who have followed its return.

"The response to Combat Zone has meant the world to us," Owens said. "We made this album to document a time, a place and a collection of experiences that shaped who we are. Seeing people connect with these songs and hearing that the stories resonate with them has been incredibly rewarding. We cannot thank everyone enough for listening, sharing the music and supporting the band."

The September 1 premiere of “The Greatest Show in Town” represents the next stage of the Combat Zone campaign and provides a visual companion to one of the album’s central tracks. Fans are encouraged to follow Loud Enough Magazine and B.F. Raid in advance of the premiere and to share the video when it goes live.
