From framed textiles and embroidered prints to metallic installations and acrylic portraits, a wide array of artistic expressions set the unmistakable ambiance that accompanies guests through the city's first and only five-star integrated luxury resort. Home to more than 2,000 artworks by Filipino artists, local artistry is celebrated within each space as fragments that complete Solaire's spatial experience.

Continuing the celebration of the local art scene, the resort opens its expansive space this August 7 to the seasoned visual artist and event curator Ycoy Sitchon's Heliara. Hosted by Galerie Joaquin, the exclusive art exhibit was curated specifically for Solaire Resort Quezon City.
