The response has been strong and immediate, with significant user engagement not only across the United States, but also throughout Europe, South America and Southeast Asia.

“These are milestones we’ve been working toward for a long time,” said Charles Paul, Founder of iBidd. “Seeing global adoption at this level confirms that the market is ready for a better way to buy and sell.

A New Standard in Selling “Zero Fees” iBidd has redefined the marketplace model by enabling users to: List and sell completely free, zero seller fees, Sellers Keep 100% of their proceeds, Buyer Protection on every item sold. This eliminates the traditional burden of listing fees, seller fees, and final value fees, giving sellers a clear advantage over legacy platforms.

Built-In Buyer Protection & Integrated Services, every item listed for sale on iBidd now includes Buyer Protection, creating a safer and more trusted environment for transactions. Additionally: Buyers can select flexible shipping options, Shipping insurance is available, Future integrations will bring payments, shipping, and protection under one unified iBidd ecosystem

Powerful SaaS Platform with Unlimited Scaling: The iBidd platform is now fully available as a SaaS solution, offering: Monthly and annual subscription options Unlimited use of premium features including Auctions, Liquidations, Highlighted Ads, Linkback Listings, and Video Ads. For example, auto dealers can list unlimited vehicles for a single monthly or annual subscription, unlocking powerful selling capabilities without incremental costs. Users can also choose a wallet-based pay-as-you-go model, offering complete flexibility.

Fully Mobile, Fully Global iBidd is now 100% mobile-optimized, allowing users to: Create accounts, List items, Search and browse, Auction and Liquidate, Bid and purchase etc....from any device worldwide, including smartphones, tablets, and desktops.

Industry Recognition & Investor Momentum iBidd has achieved a major milestone by being ranked: #1 on Tracxn Top 40 Companies in Category This recognition reflects the platform’s innovation, scalability, and disruptive business model. At the same time, iBidd is experiencing a surge in investor interest, with daily inbound inquiries from individuals and institutions seeking to participate in its growth.

“The dynamic has shifted,” said Paul. “In the past, founders sought investors today, investors are actively seeking founder and innovative companies like iBidd.”
