

JMM Global Expands Executive Search Support for Multinational Manufacturing Companies in China

JMM Global strengthens its retained executive search services for multinational manufacturing and industrial companies seeking senior leadership talent in China.

Shanghai, China Aug 15, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - JMM Global, a boutique executive search firm based in China, is strengthening its focus on senior leadership hiring for foreign and multinational manufacturing and industrial companies operating in China.

Founded and led by Jared Sussman, Managing Partner, JMM Global works directly with China-based leadership teams and global headquarters to identify senior executives for important and often confidential leadership assignments. The firm focuses on positions including General Manager, Country Head, Managing Director, and senior commercial, operational, and corporate leadership roles.

JMM Global operates through a retained executive search model. Its search process combines role definition, direct market mapping, targeted outreach, engagement with passive executive candidates, candidate assessment, and regular communication with clients throughout the assignment.

“Leadership appointments in China require a practical understanding of the local executive market and close alignment between China-based teams and global headquarters,” said Jared Sussman, Managing Partner of JMM Global. “Our approach is designed around understanding the leadership requirement in context, identifying relevant executives in the market, and maintaining a professional and confidential search process from beginning to end.”

JMM Global's sector experience includes industrial automation, semiconductors, materials and chemicals, industrial machinery, automotive suppliers, and related manufacturing sectors. The firm works with clients ranging from privately owned mid-sized businesses to large multinational and publicly listed organizations.

Confidential assignments are an important part of JMM Global's work and can include leadership transitions, succession planning, executive replacement, and other sensitive senior-management requirements. The firm's approach emphasizes discretion, direct candidate engagement, and transparent communication.

JMM Global is a member of INAC Global Executive Search, an international network of partner executive search firms. Through this network, JMM Global can support clients with cross-border executive search requirements while maintaining a strong local focus and understanding of the China market.

For international organizations seeking senior leadership in China, JMM Global provides a specialist executive search service focused on manufacturing and industrial businesses and the leadership requirements associated with operating in the Chinese market.
