Kymberly Jenkins: Delivering Personalized Real Estate Service Along the Southern Oregon Coast

Portland, Oregon Aug 19, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Kymberly Jenkins is a Real Estate Broker with Century 21 Agate Realty, proudly representing buyers and sellers throughout Brookings and the coastal communities of Southern Oregon. Known for attentive guidance, thoughtful communication, and genuine care, she has built her business around a simple belief: exceptional real estate service begins with listening.

Having lived along the West Coast throughout her life—from growing up in Santa Barbara and living in Laguna Beach to making her home in Brookings—she possesses a natural understanding of coastal communities and the lifestyle they offer. This lifelong connection to the Pacific has shaped her appreciation for the beauty and character of the Southern Oregon coast, as well as her ability to help clients understand what makes the region so distinctive.

“Brookings holds a very special place in my heart,” she shares. “Helping someone buy or sell a home here is a privilege. Real estate is never only about the property—it is about the people, their timing, and the next chapter they are working toward.”

Real estate is also part of her family legacy. As the granddaughter of a successful Century 21 brokerage owner in Southern California, she learned early that integrity, relationships, and exceptional service are the foundation of a lasting career. Her professional background in luxury hospitality and client-centered service further shaped the highly personalized approach she brings to every transaction.

Rather than relying on a one-size-fits-all formula, she takes time to understand each client’s priorities, circumstances, and long-term goals. She then creates a strategy tailored to their individual needs. From the first conversation through closing, clients can expect clear communication, careful organization, skilled negotiation, and steady support.

For sellers, her approach combines thoughtful preparation, refined marketing, compelling photography, and strategic positioning. She believes every property has a story, and her goal is to present it in a way that communicates both its features and the lifestyle it offers.

For buyers, she provides patience, local insight, and professional guidance while remaining focused on what matters most to the individual. Her goal is not simply to complete a transaction, but to help each client move forward with clarity and confidence.

Her dedication to professional excellence has earned recognition among the Top 10 real estate agents in Curry County for two consecutive years. She was also recognized among Century 21’s Top 10 agents in Oregon for 2025 and received the 2025 Century 21 Masters Ruby Award.

As a member of the Curry County Board of REALTORS® and Oregon REALTORS®, she remains actively connected to the professional community and informed about the market she serves.

While these achievements are meaningful, she measures success most personally through the trust of her clients, the relationships that continue beyond closing, and the referrals she receives from those she has represented.

“Every client deserves to feel heard, protected, and genuinely cared for. I want people to know that I am fully invested in their experience and will guide them through each step with honesty, professionalism, and attention to detail.”

Through knowledgeable representation and concierge-level service, Kymberly continues to help buyers and sellers navigate their next chapter along the Southern Oregon coast with confidence.
