

Music Promotion Club Announces End-of-Summer Music Growth Week for Artists

Music Promotion Club is offering a 10% discount on eligible artist marketing services from August 28 through September 4, 2026.

 Music Promotion

L A T E - S U M M E R

MUSIC

Growth Week

Bring Fresh Momentum to Your Music This Summer

AVAILABLE FROM
28th AUGUST TO 4th SEPTEMBER 2026

Summer Music Growth Week, a campaign for independent artists and music professionals planning promotional activity for upcoming releases and existing music projects.

The campaign will run from August 28 through September 4, 2026. During this period, customers can receive a 10% price reduction on eligible Music Promotion Club services, subject to the applicable campaign terms and service availability.

Music Promotion Club provides promotional options for artists seeking support across music-streaming platforms, video channels, digital publications and social media. The available services are structured around different campaign objectives, including release visibility, audience outreach and the development of an artist's online presence.

Eligible service categories include music promotion, YouTube video promotion, content marketing, digital advertising and artist website creation.

The company's YouTube promotion services support music videos and other artist-led video content through advertising campaigns configured according to the selected package, audience and campaign scope. Actual reach and results may vary depending on factors such as targeting, content, budget, market conditions and platform performance.

Content-marketing options include press release writing and distribution, music reviews and editorial-feature opportunities through Daily Music Roll, subject to editorial guidelines and acceptance requirements. Digital advertising services may include campaign support through Google Ads, Instagram and Facebook, depending on the service selected.

Music Promotion Club also provides artist website design services for musicians seeking a dedicated online destination for their biographies, music, videos, announcements and professional information.

"End-of-Summer Music Growth Week is intended to give artists an opportunity to evaluate the promotional tools that best match their release plans," said [Spokesperson Name], [Title] at Music Promotion Club. "Artists have different audiences, budgets and campaign objectives, so our focus is on providing service options that can be selected according to those individual requirements."

The 10% campaign pricing will be available from August 28 through September 4, 2026, on qualifying services. Eligibility, service details and applicable conditions can be reviewed on the Music Promotion Club website.

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : Music Promotion Club

See on IssueWire