

Alwayne Love Celebrates Africa With “Africa The Motherland” Official Music Video

Kingston, Jamaica reggae artist delivers a powerful tribute to Africa, heritage and the worldwide African diaspora

New York City, New York Sep 18, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Reggae artist Alwayne Love, a recording artist with T25 Records, continues to spread a message of cultural pride, history and connection with his powerful single “Africa The Motherland” and its official music video.

Originally released on June 28, 2024, “Africa The Motherland” is a roots-reggae tribute to Africa and its enormous contribution to world history, culture and civilization. The single was produced by Steve Ventura for T25 Records.

For Alwayne Love, the song is more than entertainment. It represents a personal exploration of African history and a desire to encourage listeners to learn more about the continent and its global influence.

The official music video brings that message to life visually and provides another platform for the ST Mary-based artist to connect with reggae audiences in Jamaica, Africa, the Caribbean, North America, the United Kingdom and throughout the African diaspora.
