

Cipher Grid Catalog Spotlight: Six Titles, One Fall Reading List

Dex System Publishing brings its full September lineup together in a single catalog-wide spotlight.

Bangor, Maine Sep 2, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - As September enters its final week, Dex System Publishing is stepping back to spotlight its full current lineup in one place: Portals by Chester Craig, E-Drive: The Good Ghost, A Tale of Choice by Ronald Bartholomew, Dragon Beast: Magic of the Machine by Orion Graves, Ocean Moon by Rane Corvus, The Yesterday Cipher by Morgan Burns, and The Visionary by Preston Ashcroft.

Together, the six titles represent the breadth of what Dex System Publishing, under the AM I AM imprint, has built through its Dex System creative engine this year — multiverse thrillers, machine-age fantasy, atmospheric speculative fiction, tomorrow-driven character studies, and ideas-forward explorations of where humanity is headed.

Each title continues to be available across Dex System Publishing's retailer network, distributed through the Cipher Grid digital hub. Readers new to the catalog are encouraged to start wherever their interests lead — whether that's Chester Craig's forty-seven connected worlds, Ronald Bartholomew's ongoing series of consequence, or Preston Ashcroft's look at the future of human potential.

Full retailer links for all six titles are included below, with additional format options available at ciphergrid.net.

This kind of full-catalog spotlight has become a recurring fixture of Dex System Publishing's release calendar, offering a single entry point for readers, booksellers, and media outlets who want a snapshot of the full lineup rather than following individual title campaigns throughout the month. It also gives longtime followers of the catalog a chance to catch anything they may have missed earlier in September, before the calendar turns toward October's slate.
