Richland, Washington Sep 4, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Crystal A. Miller, PhD, RRT, MBA, DHA, is a distinguished healthcare professional whose more than three decades of experience reflect a steadfast commitment to patient care, respiratory therapy, education, and healthcare leadership. Currently serving as Senior Respiratory Therapist at Kadlec Regional Medical Center in Richland, Washington, and Director of the Respiratory Therapy Program at Concorde Career College's Portland campus, Dr. Miller brings extensive clinical knowledge and academic leadership to every aspect of her work.

As Director of the Respiratory Therapy Program, Dr. Miller oversees curriculum development, mentors faculty, and encourages meaningful student engagement across academic and clinical environments. Her leadership supports Concorde Career College's mission of preparing highly competent healthcare professionals equipped to respond to the evolving needs of modern healthcare.

A licensed Registered Respiratory Therapist in Oregon, Washington, and Hawaii, Dr. Miller has consistently championed patient-centered care and quality improvement. She is also the Founder of Oregon Patient Care Coordinators in Gresham, an organization through which she has served the local community since 2019. Her professional experience spans numerous respected healthcare organizations, including Legacy Health, Adventist Medical Center-Portland, Touch Solutions, Optigen, Inc., and Multicare-Tacoma.

Dr. Miller's extensive academic background has been instrumental in shaping her multifaceted approach to healthcare. She earned an Associate of Arts and Sciences Degree from Olympic Community College before completing a Bachelor of Arts in Human Services at Hawaii Pacific University. She subsequently earned a Master of Business in Healthcare Management and a Doctorate of Healthcare Administration from the University of Phoenix. In 2015, she completed a Doctor of Philosophy in Public Service Leadership with a specialization in Healthcare Administration at Capella University, while also earning an Associate of Arts and Sciences Degree in Registered Nursing from Excelsior College.

Beyond her formal education, Dr. Miller has pursued specialized training in Patient Safety and Quality Improvement through The Johns Hopkins University. As a Registered Respiratory Therapist certified by the National Board for Respiratory Care, she remains committed to maintaining high standards of clinical practice. Her professional affiliations with the American Association for Respiratory Care and the American College of Healthcare Executives further demonstrate her dedication to advancing respiratory care and healthcare leadership.

Dr. Miller attributes her achievements to her internal drive and an enduring desire to grow professionally. Through continuous learning, clinical service, education, and leadership, she continues to make a meaningful contribution to healthcare while helping prepare future professionals to deliver safe, knowledgeable, and compassionate patient care.
