

Dr. Larry E. Beauchamp Releases New Christian Living Book and Announces Two Major Fall Festival Appearances

The Holiness/Sin Cycle (New Edition) Now Available on Amazon — Author to Appear at Good Oil Days Festival in Humble, TX and Williams Station Day in Atmore, AL

Gulfport, Mississippi Sep 19, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Larry E. Beauchamp — retired United States Air Force veteran, ordained pastor, and western fiction and Christian living author — has released The Holiness/Sin Cycle (New Edition), now available for pre-order on Amazon with an official release date of September 30, 2026. The book is the latest milestone in a prolific publishing journey that spans western frontier fiction and deeply personal Christian living titles.

A Book for Every Believer — and Every Person Making Choices

Life is full of choices. In The Holiness/Sin Cycle, Dr. Beauchamp illuminates the process that people go through when they make choices, illustrating through the use of a chart the journey from enticement to either walking in the Spirit or walking in the flesh, and the profound consequences of each decision. Written primarily for Christians but applicable to all people, the book invites readers to understand not just what they choose — but why.

Designed with churches, Bible study groups, and small group ministries in mind, each of the book's 12 chapters concludes with study questions, making it an ideal resource for group discussion and personal spiritual growth. The book also contains important theological definitions to guide readers through its core concepts.

"Life is full of choices," says Dr. Beauchamp. "This book is about understanding the process and the consequences that follow."

The Justice Series — Four Books and Counting

Alongside his Christian living work, Dr. Beauchamp has built a loyal following through The Justice Series — a gripping western frontier saga following the life and career of Jimmy Snider, a Texas Ranger whose love of family and unwavering sense of justice takes him from the sheriff's office in Humble, Texas to the most lawless corners of the frontier.

The series now spans four published titles:

- Justice at Sundown Gulch — Book 1
- Justice at Tyler, Texas — Book 2
- Justice at Brownwood, Texas — Book 3
- Justice at El Paso, Texas — Book 4 (Latest Release)

Books 5 and 6 are currently in progress, with Book 5 being developed through Christian Faith Publishing and Book 6, tentatively titled Justice Returns to Texas, currently being written by the author.

Meet the Author — Fall Festival Appearances

Dr. Beauchamp will be making two special in-person appearances this fall where readers can meet him, purchase signed copies of his books, and learn more about his work:

Good Oil Days Festival

Date: Friday, October 17, 2026 | 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Location: Main Street, Humble, TX | Free Admission

The Good Oil Days Festival celebrates Humble's rich history in the oil industry and brings together families, small businesses, food trucks, live entertainment, and vendors in the heart of the city. For Dr. Beauchamp, this appearance carries special significance — Humble, Texas is the very city where Jimmy Snider's story in The Justice Series begins. It is a homecoming of sorts for an author whose characters were born in these very streets.

Williams Station Day

Date: Saturday, October 24, 2026 | 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM CDT

Location: Atmore, Alabama

Williams Station Day traces Atmore's heritage back to the late 1800s when it was a mere train stop, featuring art, entertainment, food, a car show, antique tractor displays, crafts, and vendors. The event holds personal meaning for Dr. Beauchamp, as Atmore is the city where he last served as a pastor, making this appearance a meaningful reunion with a community close to his heart.

About Dr. Larry E. Beauchamp

Dr. Larry E. Beauchamp is a retired United States Air Force veteran, ordained pastor, and prolific author whose life has been shaped by faith, service, and storytelling. After 20½ years of military service, including roles as a Research Specialist, Recruiter, and UNIVAC-II mainframe computer operator and instructor, Dr. Beauchamp pursued advanced theological education, earning a Bachelor of Science in Religion from the University of Mobile, a Master of Arts in Christian Counseling from Liberty University, a Doctor of Ministry from the International Bible College and Seminary, and a Doctor of Theology from Gulf Coast Seminary.

Called to pastoral ministry in 1973, Dr. Beauchamp served six churches over 27 years. He was married to the late Nadine Roley Beauchamp for 56 years and has two children and three grandchildren. Today he resides at the Armed Forces Retirement Home in Gulfport, Mississippi, where he is actively involved in nursing home ministry — playing guitar at four homes and three times a week at Fiddlers Green.
