

Fall Into Fiction: Dex System Publishing Closes Out September With Its Full Catalog and a Look Ahead

The month's final release rounds out the lineup, with E-Drive once again anchoring the catalog into October.

San Francisco, California Sep 2, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Dex System Publishing closes out September with a final catalog-wide release, bringing together all six titles from the month's spotlight series one last time: Portals, E-Drive: The Good Ghost, A Tale of Choice, Dragon Beast: Magic of the Machine, Ocean Moon, Memory Days, and The Visionary.

As has been the pattern throughout the year, Ronald Bartholomew's E-Drive: The Good Ghost, A Tale of Choice returns as the catalog's anchor title, a role it has held across nearly every Dex System Publishing campaign to date. Its continued presence reflects both reader demand and its place as one of the imprint's most consistent performers.

The remaining five titles — Chester Craig's Portals, Orion Graves's Dragon Beast: Magic of the Machine, Rane Corvus's Ocean Moon, Yug Gohan's Memory Days, and Preston Ashcroft's The Visionary — round out a month that took readers from a Guatemalan jungle installation to the tides of Ocean Moon, from machine-age myth to the far edges of memory and the future of human potential.

Dex System Publishing, produced under the AM I AM imprint and distributed through the Cipher Grid digital hub, will carry several of these titles forward into October's release calendar. Readers can find full retailer availability for all six titles below, and can follow ciphergrid.net for upcoming campaign announcements.
