London, United Kingdom Sep 2, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - In an era where most social media platforms focus primarily on communication, content sharing, and online engagement, Feeups Global Multi-Tech Ltd. is positioning itself as a broader digital ecosystem designed to integrate social networking, professional opportunities, digital services, community engagement, and artificial intelligence within a single platform.

The company has announced that it has successfully achieved ISO 9001:2015 Quality Management System Certification, marking a significant milestone in its commitment to quality, innovation, and international growth.

Building a Digital Ecosystem Beyond Social Media

Unlike conventional social media platforms that primarily facilitate user interaction and content distribution, Feeups aims to create a comprehensive digital environment that brings together communication, content creation, employment opportunities, commerce, community services, and AI-powered technologies.

The company's technology ecosystem encompasses social networking, live streaming, podcasts, short-form video content, watch parties, groups and pages, online meetings, job and freelance marketplaces, e-commerce services, digital wallet solutions, blood donation and community support services, cybersecurity technologies, and AI-driven personalization, recommendations, analytics, and automated support systems.

What Sets Feeups Apart?

Feeups seeks to bridge multiple aspects of digital life within a unified ecosystem. The platform is designed to bring together social connectivity, professional networking, entertainment, digital commerce, community services, and intelligent technology solutions in one digital environment.

The Five Core Pillars of Feeups

CONNECT — Social networking, groups, pages, and online meetings.

CREATE — Short-form videos, podcasts, and live-streaming experiences.

WORK — Employment opportunities, freelance services, and professional collaboration.

EARN & DISCOVER — Marketplace solutions, digital services, and business opportunities.

AI & COMMUNITY — AI-powered personalization, recommendations, analytics, automated support, and community-focused services.

ISO 9001:2015 Certification Achievement

Feeups Global Multi-Tech Ltd. has been awarded ISO 9001:2015 Quality Management System

Certification.

The certification bears Certificate Number AMER801201 and was issued on 10 August 2026.

The achievement reflects the company's stated focus on establishing structured quality management practices as it continues developing and expanding its technology ecosystem.

Strengthening Global Presence

Feeups views the certification as an important step toward strengthening its international credibility and supporting its expansion within the global technology sector.

As the company continues to develop its platform and services, Feeups aims to establish a broader digital ecosystem that addresses multiple aspects of users' professional, social, commercial, and community needs.

Vision for the Future

"Not Just Social Media — One Platform to Connect, Create, Work, Earn & Enjoy."
