

How stone manufacturing companies in India like Stonemart[™] are making impact globally?

Indian stone industry was earlier limited to selling paving, raw slabs and blocks overseas, thanks to Stonemart[™] India, that has started new era of exporting sculptures, value added stone masterpieces worldwide.

Jaipur, Rajasthan Sep 14, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Stonemart™ is again in News and this time, the reason is related to its global reach and ease of shopping platform it has created for people to any part of the world buy directly from its official website. Even when the war is affecting almost all major export and import entities, the orders are though not as regular as earlier, but still in execution with this stone manufacturing and export company in India.

The biggest challenge, most of the companies facing at this moment of time is the increased cost of logistics and uncertainty involved in the delivery timeline. Moreover, the economies are not doing well and so every sector is feeling the heat, including the stone sector. But does that mean the market has crashed? No, it is affected but it is going on and that's where Stonemart™ gets all eyes on.

There are inquiries and orders from domestic and international market for this manufacturing company in India. When asked about the source from one of the senior officials of this company, the answer was from the repeat clients. Almost 60% clients of this company go for buying stone masterpieces as and when required from this company only. It is the ethical code of conduct the company follows, the foresightedness of the founder of Stonemart™, Mr. Swadesh Rohilla that company is still doing good even in tough times. For instance, a client from Los Altos, California, USA ordered a Hanuman sculpture almost 1 and a half year ago from Stonemart™ and placed consecutive second and third order of Hindu God Idols like God Vishnu and Goddess Laxmi and then God Shiva and Nandi stone sculpture. Even still the fourth order is in execution and soon the shipment is ready for export. It is one example to be stated and there are lot many from countries like Dubai, UAE, Singapore, UK, Japan etc.

Stonemart™ has a complete professional model of working where manufacturing, packaging, dispatch, delivery goes smoothly irrespective of pincode, state and even country. The same quality check is applicable on all its products for domestic or international orders. Be it the promised delivery time, quality of product or workmanship, the company always set its standards high and is now the preferred choice for overseas individuals as well as importers.

The man behind making this Indian company a popular global brand is Swadesh Rohilla who has chosen India over Germany for shaping the company as it is now. He is counted among the prominent personnel associated with the stone industry and even trusted by Government of India for his knowledge on stone and vision on marketing it to the full without exploiting natural resources.

He was invited to speak and share his knowledge on the development of stone industries in India by Government of Gujarat. This explains why Stonemart™ is gaining trust and helping hundreds of skilled men and women involved in stone carving art of India, carry out their art with passion and zeal.

Stonemart™ is not into selling paving, raw material, slabs or blocks of stone rather in manufacturing sculptures, statues, artifacts, modern stone fountains and other related home, garden and commercial need related masterpieces. This is to ensure a complete check on unnecessary exploitation of natural resources. The company is now a preferred choice for UAE, USA, UK, Singapore for importing stone Buddha statues, Hindu God idols, garden décor aesthetics like stone birdbath, garden seating etc and is giving a tough competition to countries like Indonesia and China.
