

Sahana System and Liferay Announce Strategic Partnership to Transform Digital Experiences in India

Ahmedabad, Gujarat Sep 9, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - This strategic partnership empowers businesses to deliver best-in-class digital experiences, drive deeper customer engagement, and unlock new avenues for value creation.

Sahana System and Liferay, Inc., a leading provider of Digital Experience Platforms (DXPs), today announced a strategic partnership designed to empower organizations across India with the tools to build, manage, and scale world-class digital experiences.

By Liferay's flexible, cloud-native Digital Experience Platform (DXP) with Sahana System's deep expertise in AI engineering, cloud infrastructure, digital transformation, quality engineering, and enterprise technology services, businesses can now accelerate their time-to-market for personalized, customer-centric solutions that meet the evolving demands of today's digital-first audience.

The partnership will specifically focus on helping enterprises modernize customer portals, intranets, commerce experiences, and mission-critical digital platforms by combining Liferay DXP's capabilities with Sahana System's consulting, engineering, AI, cloud, and implementation expertise. Together, the companies aim to help organizations simplify complex digital transformation programs, improve operational agility, and deliver secure, scalable experiences across industries such as government and public sector, healthcare, financial services, manufacturing, retail, and education.

"Our collaboration with Liferay is an important step in Sahana System's mission to help organizations build secure, scalable, and intelligent digital platforms," said Dhaval Joshi, CEO at Sahana System. "By bringing together Liferay's proven DXP capabilities and our expertise in AI engineering, cloud, and enterprise transformation, we can help businesses accelerate innovation, simplify digital operations, and deliver meaningful experiences for their customers and stakeholders."

"We are excited to have Sahana System join us in delivering digital solutions to help companies enhance customer experiences, streamline processes, and generate revenue," said Fernando Areias, Chief Operating Officer at Liferay. "At Liferay, partners are woven into the fabric of our core operations, and we will now be able to draw on Sahana System's expertise and ability to leverage the Liferay platform, helping customers see results faster."

As a strategic partner, Sahana System joins Liferay's global ecosystem of more than 360 partners across 67 countries, dedicated to helping organizations solve complex business challenges through flexible technology.
