Jaipur, Rajasthan Sep 24, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Décor is something that is too vast and dynamic. A beautiful home, a stunning office, extraordinary garden, exceptional commercial space is a dream for everyone. With numerous décor options available, a good number of architects or interior designers available, it seems to be a simple task. But as soon as you make up your mind to plan your interiors or outdoors, with stone sculptures, small or big stone statues, abstracts etc, then you always take a pause. Even interior designers or landscaping experts find it difficult to find the exclusive collection, even if found, challenge in transportation and so on.

Stonemart™ has revolutionized the way stone industry was looked upon in India. Ordering big size stone sculptures, over a ton in weight water fountains or modern abstracts is as simple as ordering your routine essentials. Yes, with this CE certified and ISO 9001:2015 Certified Manufacturing and Export company you can order any stone masterpiece, irrespective of size, quantity and get it delivered to any part of the world.

Swadesh Rohilla, the man behind Stonemart™ when started working for a German company importing natural stones from India almost 2 decades before, felt the need of a smooth operation in Indian stone Industry. Though the company was into importing stone paving and slabs, he thought of a step ahead and founded Stonemart™ dealing with hand carved stone sculptures, modern art abstract sculptures, stone Buddha statues, garden fountains, Hindu god Idols, stone birdbaths, Tulsi vrindavan, Hindu God idols, rocks for the garden, huge monolith rocks, stone furniture, uruli, table top fountains, modern indoor fountains and much more.

The line of working of this company is entirely different. It manufactures only stone masterpieces and that too carved by skilled hands. The company promotes the age old stone carving art of India and works towards the upliftment of artists who have been in this trade for generations. Every stone masterpiece manufactured at Stonemart™ is carved manually by bare hands using a hammer, chisel and basic tools. Thus the company is working for the artists by providing them with the work, they like the most and for the people who always wanted to enjoy the beauty of this age-old stone carving art of India.

Stonemart™ not just manufactures rather delivers stone masterpieces safely to any part of the world, not just PAN India. Every single day shipments are dispatched to any part of the world with a surety it is going to reach well in time, in the manner they need to be delivered. Hundreds of Stonemart™ client testimonials listed on the website of Stonemart™ prove the system started by a single man is now a big revolution.
