

Stonemart TM stone masterpieces amaze Tollywood, Bollywood and every art loving heart

Stonemart TM handcrafted stone masterpieces are preferred by every art loving heart from Tollywood, Bollywood to those looking for something extraordinary.

Jaipur, Rajasthan Sep 21, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Stone Sculptures, intricate handcrafted elephant statues, stunning uruli, and a beautiful sky-touching stone Gazebo with a seat underneath. Just these 2 lines with a handful of products are good enough to take you to a new world. A world that has roots in the past. The royal ancient culture where the immense use of stone was seen and whose imprints are still to be seen.

At Stonemart™ India, that tradition is still going on. Although it's a CE and ISO 9001:2015 stone manufacturing and export company, you will still find it more as a designers' hub. Only purely stone masterpieces are crafted here, and that too by bare hands using a hammer and chisel. The company carries a complete range of home décor, garden décor, and landscaping décor accents that are preferred by everyone, from an individual household with a love for art to celebrities from Tollywood and Bollywood.

Stonemart™ stone Buddha statues, modern Abstract Sculptures, Tulsi Vrindavan, stone water fountains, etc are preferred by people not just in India but are also shipped overseas to countries like the USA, UK, UAE, Europe, etc. You will find the stone masterpieces, like modern Granite Abstract Sculpture manufactured by this company, reaching every corner of India and even often to Film Nagar, Hyderabad, which is famous as a residential hub and headquarters of the Telugu Film Industry (Tollywood), or Mumbai, where Bollywood shines with several celebrities contributing to Indian Cinema.

The company follows a unique theme, and that is well advocated in almost all its sculptures and stone artifacts. From bigger-than-life-size sculptures to unique, intricately hand-carved Hindu God idols with modern fountains, it highlights the fusion of traditional and modern art. The recent modern cascading granite water fountain with a beautiful stone Nandi sculpture with fountain is one such unique décor aesthetic that you won't find anywhere other than in the collection of this top stone manufacturing company in India. Although it is sold in Bengaluru, Karnataka, it was inquired about and liked by thousands of people, as witnessed in one of the most viral videos on Instagram that attracted more than 1,35,000 organic views and is still counting. This shows the immense love and respect for the age-old stone carving art of India that is practiced here.

Stonemart™ was founded in the year 2006 by Mr. Swadesh Rohilla with a vision of promoting the age-old stone carving art of India and making it possible for every single individual from any part of the world to experience it and get it delivered to their doorstep, irrespective of the size or quantity. Today, the idea is a reality, and every single day shipments are dispatched to every corner of the world, not just PAN India. When asked Mr. Rohilla why sculptures are handmade, why machines are not added, his response was that we want to promote the age-old stone carving art of India, which can't be promoted without the skilled hands who have been doing this for generations. There are a number of men and women working at Stonemart who are connected to this beautiful stone industry of India and who love doing it the way they have been doing it, as their ancestors did. So why change that? Let machines not increase the number of artefacts by decreasing the number of skilled hands, who are more important to us.
