

Stonemart TM top manufacturer, creating numerous opportunities for artists involved in stone carving art in India

When it comes to the top stone sculpture manufacturers in India, Stonemart TM is a respectable name that along with art, is promoting artists involved in the trade.

Jaipur, Rajasthan Sep 12, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Fascination of stone is not something new. The stone palaces, Gazebos, Jharokhas, big size stone elephants, beautiful statues are liked by the emperors for ages. This culture continues, and thanks to top stone statue manufacturers and exporters in India like Stonemart™ that has made it possible to spread this art worldwide.

The company is creating numerous opportunities for the men, women involved in the trade. Be it the artists involved in carving statues, women involved in tasks like polishing statues, it is helping hundreds of people live a respectable life with good perks. The employment opportunities are not just restricted to artists rather those involved in logistics, packaging, civil work, engineering etc are benefitting with this organization in India.

Stonemart™ founded by Mr. Swadesh Rohilla, who started his career from Germany, this stone brand is unfolding the ancient past and spreading the aroma of this beautiful art to every corner of the world. Here statues are not just manufactured as per designs rather detailing is done as per the relevant facts. For instance, the Buddha sculptures created by the artists of this company have serene calm faces. You won't find smiling face of stone Buddha statues because it is believed his state of mind was meditation at that time. And when you meditate you don't think about happiness, sorrows and keep calm. That's why all sculptures have half eyes closed and calm face. Only when client asks to spread smile for any reason, then only the statues are carved that way. That's one reason why you hardly find any buddha stone statue in stock at Stonemart™ as it is sold immediately as soon as it is posted on website.

The company is also manufacturing Hindu God idols, modern stone fountains, water features and the huge collection with over 12000 products listed on the website, boasts why it is ranked no 1 among the top stone manufacturing companies in India. The manufacturing is not just restricted to sculptures rather landscaping products, stone furniture, gazebo etc are also crafted manually using hammer and chisel at Stonemart™.

The company is located in Rajasthan and from here only things are shipped to any part of the world. When asked Mr. Swadesh Rohilla, the founder of Stonemart™ why you are creating employment opportunities for people in Rajasthan only, his reply was satisfying. He mentioned, it's wrong to say we are giving employment to people from Rajasthan only, our company is like a garland with people from different part of the India come together and work as a family here. The beauty of India lies in its cultural diversity, and we take care it is well practiced here in my organization. If you check your place, no matter to which part of the world, you are associated with, you will find the presence of Stonemart™ for sure in one form or the other.
