

30+ Years Fighting for Massachusetts's Injured Workers: Attorney John J. Sheehan's Bilingual Practice

Boston, Massachusetts Oct 23, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - For more than three decades, attorney John J. Sheehan has stood beside injured workers and car accident victims across Massachusetts, and he has done it in the language his clients speak at home. Attorney Sheehan has represented people hurt on the job and on the road throughout the Boston metro area and the wider Commonwealth. The Law Office of John J. Sheehan is a bilingual personal injury and workers' compensation practice built on one idea: an injured person deserves a lawyer who understands them clearly and fights for the outcome they need.

That focus on communication is more than a value statement. More than 70% of the firm's clients are Spanish speakers or Spanish-dominant, and Sheehan speaks fluent Spanish alongside a native Spanish-speaking team. The firm's trademarked hook says it plainly: "Cuando hablo conmigo, nada se pierde en la comunicación" (When you speak with me, nothing is lost in the communication). For Spanish-speaking families facing a work injury or a serious crash, that promise removes a barrier that too often keeps people from getting the help they are owed.

Sheehan's standing among his peers reflects the same consistency. He holds a Martindale-Hubbell AV Preeminent rating, the highest tier in a peer-review system where practicing attorneys and members of the judiciary confidentially evaluate a lawyer's legal ability and ethical standards. Rather than lean on labels, the firm points to what can be verified: an attorney admitted to the Massachusetts Bar who has fought for the injured since 1993.

The practice concentrates on the cases Massachusetts workers and drivers face most: car accident personal injury claims, workers' compensation cases, and construction accident and third-party claims. Injured people can learn more through the firm's Boston workers' compensation lawyer resources, and Spanish-speaking clients can find the same information on its Spanish-language pages. With offices in Boston and Wakefield, the Law Office of John J. Sheehan serves clients across northern, central, and southern Massachusetts. Consultations are free, and there is no fee unless the case is won.

About the Law Office of John J. Sheehan

Based in Boston with a second office in Wakefield, the Law Office of John J. Sheehan represents people across Massachusetts after a workplace injury or a serious crash. The firm's day-to-day work spans job-site and construction accidents, third-party claims, and roadway collisions, with each case handled directly by an attorney rather than passed off. Its team works in English and Spanish and takes injury cases on contingency, so clients pay nothing unless there is a recovery.
