

Detroit Magician Jack Bodenstein Publishes Client Guide to Hiring Ethical Entertainers for Michigan Events

A performer with more than fifteen years of experience pairs direct booking with open pricing guidance for corporate planners, wedding couples, and event professionals.

Stamford, US Oct 14, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Jack Bodenstein, a professional close-up magician and entertainer with more than fifteen years of experience, today shared his published guide to hiring ethical entertainers. The guide is available at Jack Bodenstein and gives event planners a practical framework for evaluating performers and booking arrangements.

The guide follows the principles of Bodenstein's own practice: direct communication with clients, clear terms, and performances built around each event rather than a standard routine. It is written for corporate event coordinators, marketing teams, wedding couples, and private hosts.

"Clients deserve to know exactly who they are hiring, what they are paying for and what to expect on the night," said Jack Bodenstein. "Straightforward booking should be the standard in this industry, and I hope this guide helps planners make confident decisions."

A CAREER BUILT ON CLOSE-UP CRAFT

Bodenstein began performing as a child and has built a full-time career at Detroit venues and corporate events across Michigan and the Midwest. His work combines classical sleight of hand with modern mentalism, and he adapts each performance to the room and audience.

- Close-Up Magic: Interactive, in-hand performances for cocktail hours, dinner receptions, and networking events.

Bodenstein is a member of the American Magicians Guild and the National Brotherhood of Magic Arts. He also leads a youth mentorship initiative connected to Coventry Enterprises, which is based in Detroit's Coventry district.
